

Sara Baras Queen of Flamenco

The sound of guitars, percussion, hoarse voices and poignant songs will flood the Auditorium

Dance

Conciliazione on March 8th and 9th when the Queen of Flamenco, Sara Baras, takes her place. Along with her "court" of Andalusian dancers, singers and musicians, with the show, Voces Suite Flamenca, the company will pay homage to the great artists of the past: Paco de Lucia, Camarón de La Isla, Enrique Morente, Moraito, Carmen Amaya and Antonio Gades. With the artistic direction of Daniel Cipriani and support of the Fondazione Roma-Arte-Musei, the public will have the opportunity to experience flamenco, a dance that creates its own music, powered by its own rhythm and animated by its own duende or spirit.
